NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The World

Benjamin Harrison and Whitelaw

Reid are worse beaten in the electoral college than any men who have run for president and vice president since Horace Greeley's campaign in 1872. They will receive barely more votes than

Greeley would have had had he lived until the college met.

Cleveland and Stevenson will receive more votes in the electoral college than any candidates have ever before had.

The transfer of Ohio to the Democratic column raises Cleveland's vote to over 300, and reduces Harrison's to little more than 100. The exact figures according to late returns are: Cleveland,

60; Harrison, 100; Weaver, 32.

Lawmakers transfer South Dakota's electoral votes from the Harrison column to the Reid column. This makes the totals as follows: Cleveland, 306;

Harrison, 116; Weaver, 32.

The latest reports indicate that the next

United States Senate will be divided as follows: Democratic, forty-two; Republican, forty; People's party, six.

THE ELECTORAL VOTE.

Cleveland Has 271 Without California or Ohio.

New York, Nov. 11.—Cleveland's vote in the electoral college is, according to the latest returns as follows:

First district—A. H. Taylor, Democratic; John L. Bretz, Democratic; John E. Brown, Democratic; George W. Cooper, Democratic; D. U. Johnson, Democratic; Eighth, W. D. Brooks, Democratic; Daniel Wang, Republicans; Tenth, Thomas Hammond, Democratic; Eleventh, W. F. McNamara, Democratic; Twelfth, W. G. Connel, Democratic; Thirteenth, W. G. Connel, Democratic.

The legislature is Democratic by a majority of about thirty on joint ballot, assuring a Democratic senator to succeed.

Ohio.

COLUMBUS, Nov. 14.—It is now believed to be quite certain that the Republican candidates in this state have been elected, all of them. It is yet possible for any one to give exact figures, but it is probable that Hon. S. M.

Taylor has been elected secretary of state by about 1,000 plurality and that the Republican electors have been elected by something less than that.

Democrats elect eleven of the twenty-one congressmen.

Latest returns show the election of the following congressmen:

First district—Belamy Storer, Republican.

Second—John A. Caldwell, Republican.

Third—George W. Hon, Democratic.

Fourth—F. C. Layton, Democratic.

Fifth—D. D. Donovon, Democratic.

Sixth—George W. Balow, Republican.

will no doubt be anti-Republican.

Montana—Entire state ticket Democratic.

North Dakota—Republicans elect Secretary of state only on state ticket. Republican.

Ninth—Ritchie, Democrat.

Tenth—W. H. Knobs, Republican.

Wyoming—Harrison elects: Democratic by 1 majority on joint ballot.

South Dakota—Republicans legislative ticket—Electors Republican.

Minnesota—Electors Republican. Congressional delegation mixed.

Washington—Harrison elects: Democratic gubernatorial. Republicans elected. Legislative Republican. Democrats claim the congressman.

Michigan—Populists—Democratic by the usual method.

Nevada—Everything went People's party.

Delaware—Democratic.

Arkansas—Democratic by about 20,000.

Colorado—Everything went for the People's party.

Massachusetts—State and national Democratic tickets elected.

Alabama—Democratic by about 60,000.

Texas—Everything Democratic, except possibly the congressman in the Galveston district.

Iowa—Everything Republican, except possibly one congressional district.

The Congressional election in the Fifty-third congressional district is the most important. The latest developments confirm the statement made originally in the United Press dispatches that the balance of power in the next senate will be held by the third party, although by a narrow margin.

The Democrats will gain senators in

New York, Wisconsin, Wyoming, and California, giving them forty-three. Republicans will return a successor to Senator Paddock from Nebraska, and also one from the state of Oregon.

The Republicans will gain senators in

Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota,

Mississippi, Missouri, and North Carolina, and one from the state of Kansas.

The Republicans will gain senators in Ohio, West Virginia, and Kentucky.

The Republicans will gain senators in Alabama, Georgia, and South Carolina.

The Republicans will gain senators in Tennessee, Louisiana, and Mississippi.

The Republicans will gain senators in Arizona, New Mexico, and Wyoming.

The Republicans will gain senators in Utah, Colorado, and Montana.

The Republicans will gain senators in Idaho, Nevada, and Alaska.
